

CHS Policies Pertaining to Written Assignments

Academic Honour Expectations

Students at Caronport High School are a part of a Christian educational institution, and are therefore expected to display the highest level of integrity in the pursuit of academic success. For this reason, incidents relating to a lack of integrity (purposeful plagiarism, copying information from other students, etc.) will be dealt with seriously.

Students should expect serious consequences for demonstrating a lack of integrity in completing their class assignments. These consequences may range from 15 LEAD points up to dismissal from the school (as appropriate to the situation).

If a student commits an infraction relating to a lack of integrity, he/she is expected to respond with integrity at the prompting of the Holy Spirit, or when confronted by a fellow student or CHS staff member. Having a heart-felt repentance is the only way to be restored to a right relationship with God, and to be an effective student in the school.

Late and Incomplete Assignments Policy

Meeting deadlines is an important responsibility that people must develop in all areas of their life. A policy to deal with late and incomplete assignments includes a strong response to student irresponsibility, a measure of hope for those students who want to recover from poor choices earlier in the term, and a clean, immediate resolution to the issue by the end of each term.

When an assignment is submitted late, students may be deducted 10% per school day off the mark for that assignment up to a maximum 40% deduction. Teachers may use a variety of methods to motivate students to hand in late assignments, including LEAD points, extra work sessions outside of class time, communication with parents and/or deans, etc.

The final submission deadline for all late and incomplete assignments is the time of the final exam for the course in which the assignments were given.
